Chief Scott Gilbert decision to retire from the Peterborough Police Service effective February 7th, 2022

Chief Scott Gilbert has submitted his intention, to the Police Services Board, that he will be retiring from the Peterborough Police Service effective February 7th, 2022.

“On behalf of the Board, we acknowledge Scott’s accomplishments during his tenure ensuring that community safety was always priority number one. Scott has led the Service through significant changes over the past three and a half years. His work in advancing police accountability, adoption of new technologies and creating efficiencies in police community responses have resulted in a well-respected police service by citizens throughout the City of Peterborough, Lakefield and Cavan-Monaghan. The Board wishes him all the best in retirement”

- Les Kariunas, Chair, Peterborough Police Services Board

Deputy Chief, Tim Farquharson, has been appointed as Acting Chief effective February 7th, 2022.
